

NEGROES WANTED IN WASHINGTON

Now Serving Terms in Jail in This City for Carrying Pistols

HAD BEEN FINED $100

Prisoners Alleged to Have Shot Policeman in Capital City and Engaged in Other Crimes.

On the night of October 30th Officer Morris, of the Alexandria police force, was exercising espionage upon two strange negroes who were acting suspiciously in West End, or Duke street extended at a time when several holdups had been reported. He came upon them unexpectedly at a time when he had reason to believe they were about to intercept a man. He took the negroes in charge and when searched at the station house a pistol was found upon one and a number of cartridges upon the other. They gave their names as George Taylor and William Green.
They were unable to give an account of themselves, and were fined $100 each. As they did not meet the assessments, they were sent to jail for ninety days.

Yesterday officers from Washington visited the jail and it is said identified the negroes as desperados wanted in that city to answer the charge of shooting a policeman and engaging in other crimes.

They will be held subject to action on the part of the authorities of the capital city.

Taylor and Green have recently given the keepers at the jail considerable trouble. It is alleged that they formulated a plot to make a jail delivery, and assaulted Bailiff Candler.

SPORTS

The Dreadnoughts are scheduled to meet the Army Medical School eleven from Washington tomorrow afternoon on the Ship yard field. Manager Musler of the Dreadnoughts scheduled the game late yesterday.

There is some question as to where the heralded Virginia Athletic Club—Quentin Athletic Club game, booked for tomorrow, will be played. Some of the local outfit favor the Shipyard field, while the Washington eleven desires to play on the High School field.
A decision will be reached tonight.

A meeting of the Virginia Athletic Club will be held tonight at the Community Center after practice. Every member of the club is requested to attend the meeting.

The Dreadnoughts are dickering for a game with the Ta Ko Lo Team of Richmond for Dec. 7th, in Richmond, and there seems a likelihood of the game being played.

Representatives from the Virginia Athletic Club, the Dreadnought Athletic Club, the Westminster Club and the High School were interested in the Alexandria Basketball League project launched last night at the Community Center. Another meeting will be held early next week.

There was a little talk yesterday of the old Cardinal Athletic Club putting a quint on the floor this winter, and if these old timers do stage a come back, the younger blood of Alexandria will be forced to play real basketball to win the city title.

TAG DAY A SUCCESS

Thousands Buy Tags For Alexandria Hospital Benefit

Tag day for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital was a success.
Rain had but little effect on those engaged in the task of disposing of the tags for this worthy institution.

Early this morning, long before many left the "hay", a small sized army of women, boys and girls, started on their rounds armed with the tags bearing the legend: "Have A Heart—Help the Alexandria Hospital, Saturday, November 22, Tag Day."

Long before noon most of the persons seen on the streets were one of the tiny pieces of pastboard indicating that they had contributed their mite to make tag day a success.

Probably never before was the sale of tags for any other occasion so general as it was today. There were few persons who refused the canvassers, and if they did it was because they did not have the change.
The promoters of the movement of the tag day celebration are well pleased with the result of the sale of the tags which will add several hundred dollars to the Alexandria Hospital funds.

BAN ON DANCING

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 22.—Dancing by boys and girls in the Baptist Schools of Virginia, complete control of these schools by the Baptists, the 75 million campaign, reports covering the year's work in the state, the relation of the Virginia board for ministers, relief to the board of the Southern Baptist convention, a strong sermon on applying first century Christianity to modern conditions and an address by Dr. Mullins, of the seminary on the world war, as a means of advancing religious liberty were the outstanding features of the Baptist general association Wednesday.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my sister, Nettie V. Robey, who departed this life 8 years ago today, November 22, 1911.

My sister was sleeping for a week Moving her hands up to Heaven, Telling us where she was going,
When we moved her from one bed to another.

She opened her bright eyes and gave us a loving smile.
The Golden Gates were opened,
And a gentle voice said, come, Rest in peace with sister dear.
In Heaven, God's happy home.

She sleeps, but so young and fair, She slumbers sweet and knows no care.
Her heart was pure, her life was young,
Yet not our will, but God's be done.

By her sister,
Mollie Pilkerton.

In sad but loving remembrance of my daughter, Nettie V. Robey, who departed this life 8 years ago today, November 22, 1911.

Eight years seems long since you left us,
It is only eight today,
But we love you just as dearly As the day you passed away.

How sadly we have counted the hours,
That measures eight sorrowful years, Since they laid beneath the mantle of flowers.

The daughter we loved so well, Her busy hands are folded,
Her work on earth is done,
Her troubles all are ended, Her heavenly crown is won.

If we could see behind the stars That which is hid from us, We know we would see our daughter.

There tenderly watching us,
The midnight stars are gleaming, Upon her silent grave,
The one we love so dearly,
And tried so hard to save.

The dear one now is sleeping, No care is on her brow, Oh, blame us not for weeping,
For we have no daughter now.
By the family.

COAL MINERS CUT THEIR DEMANDS

Abandon Proposal for 30-Hour Week and 60 Per Cent Raise

ASK 40 PCT. INCREASE

Secretary Wilson Goes Into Joint Conference With Miners and Operators in an effort to Hurry Agreement.

Bituminous coal miners yesterday abandoned their demands for a 30-hour week and a 60 per cent increase in wages. In a counter-proposal to the operators in conference here they would accept a 40 per cent wage increase and a seven-hour day.

The proposal evoked a spirited debate in the wage scale committees and it was said a decision probably would not be made at least until tomorrow. The operators have not indicated any willingness to amend their offer of 15 cents a ton and 20 per cent increase for day wage labor, with the working hours as at present.

Secretary of Labor Wilson went into joint conference with the miners and operators late yesterday to discuss the various proposals before them.

Bituminous coal mine operators served what was practically an ultimatum on the coal miners' representatives earlier in the day, telling them that the offer Thursday of 15 cents a ton and 20 per cent day wage increases was the utmost that could be given. The miners went into a conference immediately to consider the offer.

Before entering a joint conference yesterday, Lewis reiterated that the operators' offer was inadequate and unacceptable. He indicated, however, that it would be given further consideration by the miners if it could be enlarged to cover details of working conditions and allowances for dead work for the miners. The operators, however, left the proposal in its original form.

As any contract agreed to by the operators and miners must receive the approval of Fuel Administrator Garfield, some observers believed he would step in before the negotiations between the miners and operators reached an impasse.

Reports indicate that the scarcity of coal is becoming increasingly acute.
While the enforcement of the priority order of the Fuel Administration was placed in the hands of regional coal committees, composed of railway directors and representatives of Dr. Garfield, word had been sent out from Washington to clamp on restrictions as tightly as local conditions would permit.

BAKING CONTEST

General Baking Co. to Award $1,000
In Prizes

Announcement has just been made of the personnel of the committee which will judge the home made bread submitted in the baking contest, to be held under the auspices of the General Baking Company next Saturday, November 29th.

One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) in cash prizes has been offered by the General Baking Company for the best 121 loaves of bread submitted on that day.

"What kind of bread do the people of Alexandria and vicinity really prefer?" Is the question to be settled by this competition in which thousands of housewives are expected to enter.
Following the contest, the General Baking Company will produce a new loaf of bread, in which their experts expect to combine the best qualities of the home baked loaves which win the prizes in this contest.

The Committee of Judges will meet for luncheon at the Hotel Washington, Washington, D. C. at 12.30 o'clock on Saturday, and from there will go to the Y. W. C. A., where the loaves will be judged.
See advertisement for list of judges on page three.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thursday, November 27, 1919.—A Proclamation by the Gov. of Va.

Whereas, In the dawn of this new era born of the victory of democracy, right and justice over autocracy and crime there has come during the past year the promise of a peace preparant with prosperity and happiness for the peoples of the world—a promise of human hopes fulfilled; and

Whereas, Virginia's gallant sons who so conspicuously served the State and nation overseas, and survived the conflict, have returned to us during the year—heroes one and all, resuming the duties and responsibilities of civil life with the same fortitude and spirit that carried them to victory on the field of battle; and Whereas, In this period of social and economic unrest the Commonwealth during the year has been spared the distress and injury of internal disorder, and has enjoyed great prosperity; now

Therefore, I, Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, do proclaim, Thursday, November 27, 1919, a public holiday to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer throughout the Commonwealth, and I call upon all the people of Virginia to gather on that day in their usual places for divine worship and there, as well as in the sacred confines of the homes, give thanks to the Almighty for the cessation of hostilities and the promise of an enduring peace in the world; for the many blessings we have received at the hands of the Almighty and for the return of our sons from overseas—at the hour of prayer on this day of joyful thanksgiving, however, let our thoughts turn in grateful memory to our immortal dead who sleep on the battle fields of France.

Given under my hand and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth this twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and in the one hundred and forty-fourth year of the Commonwealth.

Westmoreland Davis,
Governor. 278-2t

BUTTER AND EGGS

Butter, so called, as there is little of the good quality on sale, was being held at 75 and 80 cents per pound in the Alexandria market this morning. Eggs were offered by countrymen and others at 90 cents per dozen.

Everyone is interested in knowing when the limit is to be reached and what it will be. When dealers say Christmas eggs may cost nearly a dollar a dozen and good butter 90 cents a pound, it is time the public became inquisitive.

No person finds difficulty in buying all the eggs and butter desired —if the price is paid. There is no shortage. On the contrary the supply is much above what it was a year ago. Comparing holdings on November 17, 1919, with those on the same date this year, the Bureau of Markets, Department of Agriculture, reports an increase of 33.7 per cent. in stocks of case eggs, 42.2 per cent. in frozen eggs and a gain of 34.8 per cent. in creamery butter.

Yet a year ago creamery butter was selling at wholesale in most markets at from 57 to 66 cents a pound and packing stock from 30 to 37 cents. In most market columns the creamery butter at present is quoted at from 73 1-2 to 74 cents and packing stock at 60 cents. On this date last year strictly fresh eggs were selling wholesale at 74 cents a dozen.

It is natural for butter and eggs to be higher in winter than in summer. But, with holdings on hand much in excess of those a year ago, why do prices fail to respond?
What is the answer?

THE COAL FAMINE

While operators and representatives of the miners were in conference yesterday in comfortable quarters warmed by cheerful radiators thousands of persons huddled about sickly fires and realizing that their coal bins are empty.
Others were attempting to prepare liners on gas stoves which emitted weak blazes, due to the use of inferior coal at the works. While such cheerless conditions were in evidence the papers were printing dispatches from various cities announcing the shutting down of plants, on account of the scarcity of coal, thus depriving thousands of employment.

Under such surroundings the Christmas season is rapidly approaching with the coal and sugar shortage becoming more acute all the time.

While the wolf may be kept for a time at a safe distance from our doors, Old Boreas is likely to be found demanding admission if present conditions continue.

Doctor Garfield is viewing the present crisis through same eyes.
For there is a crisis, and if the negotiations come to a standstill we may look for a coal famine.

Most consumers are quite willing that the miners should be paid wages that will enable them to live according to American standards.
The question for those who are conducting these parties is to determine just what is the "American standard." The consumers are also satisfied that the operators shall have a fair return on their investment. But some one must determine the meaning of a "fair return."

In the meantime Commissioner Garfield, speaking for the vast majority of the American people, ventures his mind very freely. "The people of the United States," he says, "need, must have and will have coal, and they will not be prevented by anything the operators and miners may do unless the government is dissolved into a chaotic condition."

As is suggested by the Baltimore Sun, "it is clear that injunctions to not always enjoin—that as you cannot fairly indict a whole people, you cannot force four or five hundred thousand workers through a legal draft writ to do what they don't want to do. Judge Anderson's injunction extorted the compliance of a few leaders with the letter of his order, but it did not end the coal strike, which has apparently lost little in effectiveness since it was nominally called off. Nor did the injunction promote good feeling and understanding between the operators and the representatives of the miners. It simply transferred their wrangle from the Federal Court to Washington."

As long as they confront each other in this frame of mind, nothing satisfactory or permanent can be hoped for in the way of a settlement. What is to become of the public while they are fighting it out? Must the Federal Government run the coal mines at great expense and waste, or should the several states affected imitate the example of Kansas and show what they can do in the exercise of state sovereignty and state initiative?
The country needs a speedy answer.
And it needs an answer that will dig coal.

The only thing that Garfield can do is to take over the mines and run them under the war powers of the Government. But even that wouldn't make the miners work unless they choose to do so. And they might choose, unless Garfield surrendered to them. In that case the operators might claim their thirty pieces of silver, too, and the cost of coal would advance like the cost of railroading.

GERMANS IN THE SENATE

A majority of the Senators—almost all of them, Republicans—have voted to perpetuate war as the only means of settling international disputes. This is precisely the attitude of the German Government at The Hague in 1907.

A majority of the Senators, not much less than the two-thirds who ought to have voted for ratification, voted against the ratification of the peace treaty in its original form for precisely the same reason that at The Hague the German Government opposed a combination of nations to enforce arbitration; they wish to keep the United States free to fight at any moment. That was the reason Germany prevented the formation of a league at The Hague.

The opposition to the peace treaty was not due to its details; it was due to the fundamental proposition of a combination of nations to enforce peace. The German Government would not have had it in 1907, and the Republican Senators will not have it in 1919. The reservations for which the Republicans voted did not change the methods proposed by the peace treaty; they rejected them; every one of the reservations reserved to the United States an option to keep or not to keep its word in the particular section to which the reservation was attached.

In regard to the origin and the continuance of the world war the German Government has protested that the responsibility was on its enemies, because if they had only given up to Germany there would have been no war. In precisely the same responsibility of defeating the treaty rests upon the Democrats, because they would not accept the treaty with the reservations negating every engagement.

But the responsibility of Germany for beginning and continuing the war is perfectly established, and the responsibility for defeating the peace treaty rests upon Mr. Lodge and his associates, who attached to every agreement of the covenant of the League of Nations a reservation that the agreement meant nothing. —Philadelphia Record.

DANGERS IN THE STREETS

Another little child was knocked down by an automobile on King street yesterday afternoon. The victim, this week, it is said, was the youngest child of the family.
The accident was not the result of carelessness upon the part of the operator, but that the child ran in front of the on-coming car.

There is danger in our streets at present, as is the case in all cities.
The number of motor cars is constantly increasing, and great care is necessary in crossing thoroughfares. Little children, however, are thoughtless and do not always stop, look and listen. These precautions should be taught them in their homes.

In spite of the campaign of education on the need of avoiding the dangers of the city streets, we are having more frightful accidents than ever before. Scarcely a day passes without a list of dead and injured caused chiefly by reckless driving in different cities. Pedestrians have been fairly educated to the importance of caution upon the street but our little ones often fail to "take care."

When we consider that the statistics of street accidents in the United States are as serious as our actual casualties in the great war, we may get a faint notion of the extent of the evil.

SHOOT HIS WIFE

Murderer Says He Was Intoxicated
When He Killed Spouse Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 22.—Andrew Mislin, of West Pittston, shot and killed his wife because she had called to give him the kind of food and cooking he desired and because his rage got the better of him, while he was under the influence of liquor.
That is the burden of the story which Mislin carried to court Thursday in an effort to justify his crime.

Mislin said he never abused his wife as she was as tall as he and weighed 70 pounds more. But, he said, Mrs.
Mislin had abused him, even having thrown a lamp at him. He bought a revolver, he declared, while enraged and after he had seen another man walking in the direction of his home, found out later that the man did not go to his home, but when he himself walked in Mrs. Mislin had no dinner for him. A quarrel followed and the fatal shot was fired.

"THE MARSHALL HOUSE CORNER"

POSSE BURNED HIS HOME

Then Danville Policeman is Denied Insurance on It

Danville, Va., Nov. 22.—The Supreme Court of Virginia has awarded a writ of error in the case of the Queen Insurance Company against A. J. Perkins, a Danville policeman, who sued the concern for a claim as a result of the destruction by fire of a house he owned.

A jury some months ago awarded the office $1,000. The insurance company declined to pay the claim because the fire was an unusual one.

Walter Clark, a negro desperado after killing a policeman, and wounding two more, took refuge in the house in question while a posse besieged it. Finally to bring the negro out, burning gasoline was sprayed on the roof. The negro was driven out, only to fall riddled by bullets. The company declined to pay the claim on the ground that the fire was incidental to a riot and that a clause in the policy provided for this very contingency.

POLICEMEN IN TROUBLE

35 Indictments Returned in Petersburg 'Dry' Law Cases

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 22.—The special grand jury of the hustings court investigating alleged bootlegging and other charges of violation of the prohibition law in Petersburg, held its final session Wednesday night and returned four new indictments. Those indicted are Detective C. E. Worrell, two misdemeanor charges; Detective Melvin T. Aldridge, one misdemeanor charge; Policeman William H. Collett, Jr., one felony charge, and Robert H. Jones, a young business man, one misdemeanor charge. The misdemeanor charges are for violation of the prohibition law and the felony charge for accepting bribes in connection with bootlegging. The four were arrested today and later released under bail. The grand jury found a total of 35 indictments, and those who have not been arrested are being sought. Before adjournment the jury submitted to the court a report making grave charges against the police department, which are in part: "That members of the police department have accepted money and whisky from persons whom they knew were illegally dealing in whisky; that members of the police department have 'shaken down' bootleggers, that is, have taken whisky away from them, and appropriated it for their own use; that protection, aid and information have been given by the force to persons in 'illegal liquor business' and that in anticipation of raids, liquor has even been moved from the storage places to the homes of a select few."

He said he welcomed the suggestion that the treaty question should be made an issue in the Presidential campaign. He would like the people vote their opinion on the approval of ratification with the reservations prepared by the Senate majority, or ratification without reservations as demanded by President Wilson, or rejection altogether. "To that great and final question alone would I appeal," the Senator said.

Senator Lodge's statement indicated that it may be part of his plan to hold the treaty in the House until the question of ratification is decided by the Senate. He said he would like to see the treaty passed by the Senate and then to have it passed by the House.

take action of this kind if there is any disposition upon the part of the Republican majority to hold up the treaty in the committee. Prepare Now For INFLUENZA

Renew Your Vitality with Pepsinol before the Second Epidemic Comes BUILD up your vitality to withstand influenza. Medical experts agree that another epidemic is coming. No one knows when or where it will strike. The havoc is greatest among those whose vitality is weakened by neglect of their health. If you would protect yourself, shield your family from this terrible disease, there is nothing better than Pepsinol, the restorative tonic, strength builder and general conditioner.

German bullets and shells killed many thousands of American boys at Chateau Thierry, at Belleau Wood, at the Hindenburg Line and in the Argonne Forest. Losses in the war were infinitesimal as compared with the losses inflicted by influenza at home. Whole families were destroyed by the plague in a few days. The death rate was the highest ever known in this country.

The second epidemic may be still worse. Physicians declare it's near at hand. Now is the time for you to prepare yourself, to build up your strength, refresh and invigorate your nerves. As you know, the weak are particularly liable to attack by influenza.

Provide for your safety with Pepsinol. It strengthens you, builds up your power of resistance to disease, lets impure blood, worn-out nerves, weak tissues make you a victim of the dreaded influenza. Pepsinol makes the entire constitution vigorous and robust, strengthens the vital organ whose weakness invites disease.

In the city of Washington, the National Capital, there were 2,294 deaths from influenza alone during the period from September 14, 1918, to March 1, 1919. Many thousands more were stricken, but recovered. A large percentage of the convalescents, however, were so weakened that they fell easy victims to other diseases, such as lung or heart trouble and similar ailments. In country districts the death rate was exceedingly high.

If you are run down, all tired out, suffer from dyspepsia or indigestion, are nervous and sickly, sleep badly and fitfully, Pepsinol is what you need to bring you back to a normal condition of health and to give you the strength, strength and vitality that must be had to insure complete recovery from influenza or to ward it off.

Genuine Pepsinol, compounded in strict accordance with the standards of the U. S. Pharmacopoeia and made only by The Peplex Medicine Company, Memphis, Tenn., is recommended by physicians and specialists to strengthen weakened constitutions before and after sickness. If you are sickly, you will be astonished by the quickness with which Pepsinol restores you to health. You may get it from the authorized Pepsinol agent in your locality.

Make up your mind now that you will bake a loaf of bread and submit it on Saturday morning, Nov. 29th.

You may very well be one of the 121 women who will win prizes amounting to $1,000.

If you are a good cook, if you are proud of your bread, the General Baking Company wants you to show them

That is why they have offered these generous money prizes to the women of this community.

Every contestant will at least get (free) two loaves of the new wrapped bread which the General Baking Company will pattern after the prize winning home-made loaves.

This will be called Bond Bread because it will be guaranteed by the Bond of the General Baking Company, to possess the same pure "home" ingredients—the same home-made taste—the same crust and the same texture as the best home-made loaves which your committee of well-known local women judges will choose.

How judges will select the 121 winners

As each loaf of bread is received, its wrapper containing the contestant's name will be marked with a number corresponding to a ticket which will be returned to her.

Promptly at 2 o'clock Saturday, November 29, all loaves will be laid out on tables. Each loaf will be identified by its number. The names of the contestants will be concealed from the judges.

The Committee of Judges will then pick out the 121 best loaves from all of those submitted. The women who will do this are unbiased and thoroughly representative of this vicinity. They are well-known local women who are giving their time (without compensation) to the judging of this contest. Their only reason for doing this is the possibility that the contest may result in bringing about better bread for the people of Washington, and vicinity.

The judges will be asked to select the best loaves of bread on the basis of the following six qualities: General appearance, shape (size in proportion to weight, height, thickness), color (inside of loaf), taste, flavor.

The prize-winning loaves will be taken as a model from which the General Baking Company will produce BOND BREAD. This BOND BREAD will be offered to the public after the expert bakers analyze the loaves the prize winners submit, and copy their ingredients and qualities to modern baking methods.

You are sure to win something—

Even if you are not among the 121 luckiest ones, you will surely receive (free) two large loaves of the new Bond Bread when baked. So you cannot lose, you see. Here is how the $1,000 will be divided among the contestants who submit the 121 best loaves:

These prize-winning loaves will be taken as a model from which the General Baking Company will copy and incorporate in a new loaf of bread to be called Bond Bread. In their clean, sunlit bakeries (so highly praised by pure food authorities) it is possible to make any kind of bread. They want to know what kind of bread you—the women of this vicinity—like best, so that they may duplicate that bread for you.

Simple rules about the contest

Simply bake your loaf of these home ingredients: Flour, Land Sugar, Milk, Water, Compressed Yeast, Salt. (Proportions are up to you.) Your finished loaf must weigh between 20 and 24 ounces.

No entry fee required. Either mail your loaf by parcel post—or deliver it yourself, or by messenger—as long as it arrives before 12 A. M. Nov. 29. In every case, your own name and address must be written on the outside of the wrapper containing your loaf.

About Dec. 3, the newspapers will announce the 121 prize-winners. They will receive their $100 cash prizes not later than Dec. 7.

The new Bond Bread will copy the best points of the home-made loaves which win this Contest Ferdinand Ragonez, an Italian Resident of Cumberland, Killed at Scottsdale, Pa.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 22.—Mystery surrounds the death of Ferdinand Ragonez, Italian resident of Cumberland, who was found dead at Scottsdale, Pa., Wednesday night, with 23 knife wounds in his body. Ragonez received a telegram several days ago asking him to come to Pittsburgh at once, and it is thought the message was part of a trap into which Ragonez fell. Ragonez was about 28 years of age. The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides Cardui Gave Relief Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson of this place writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relief. I used I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui, I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present be just what you need. Thousands of good health. Give it a trial.

Immediately after the coroner had examined the little boy he expressed belief that death had resulted from foul play.

Added strength was given to the theory that the child was murdered by reason of the fact that the spot where the body lay was extremely difficult of access and practically unapproachable by a child of three years.

FELL UPON CIRCULAR SAW

Martinsburg, W. Va., Nov. 22.—Tripping on an oval-shaped particle of wood, Judson Montgomery, aged 18 years, employed at a sawmill on a farm in this county owned by former United States Senator Charles J. Faulkner, fell head first into a fast revolving circular saw. His head was lacerated, his entire length, sufficiently deep in the front to penetrate the brain and cause instant death.

cide the horrible death of young Jim Warren.

This is the question that will confront those who attend the showing of "Her Kingdom of Dreams" starring Anita Stewart and which will be seen tonight at the Richmond Theatre.

As the youngest and most beloved son of the wealthy James Warren, prominent Wall Street banker, the youth meets his death in time to save his reputation. A forged check and a semi-disreputable woman are the incidents that point an almost accusing finger of shame at him even at his death. This leads Fred Warren, oldest son, to proclaim that he forged the check.

How Judith Rutledge, played by Anita Stewart, private secretary to the elder Warren, marries Fred at the request of her dying employer is but the beginning of a series of most unusual incidents which combine to make "Her Kingdom of Dreams" probably the most appealing photoplay seen at the Richmond Theatre in many days.

A CHEERFUL RECOMMENDATION

"They should be in every traveling man's grip," writes Geo. Jenner, 416 Labor St., San Antonio, Texas, of Foley's Cathartic Tablets. "They are the best laxative I have taken and I cheerfully recommend them to anyone suffering with constipation or biliousness." They thoroughly cleanse the bowels, sweeten the stomach and benefit the liver. They correct indigestion, bad breath, bloating, gas, coated tongue and other results of sluggish bowels. No griping; no nausea.

Hood Prices, being based absolutely on actual costs of highest quality materials and labor, are consistent with Hood Quality and Road Service

The Hood ideal of tire value and service — greatest average mileage actually delivered at lowest cost per mile — remains unshaken by unsettled conditions which are arising to confront and confuse both tire dealers and tire users.

With costs of materials and labor at a high point, with the cost of cotton showing increase, with labor constantly increasing in cost, with rubber only slightly weakening, and with overhead reduced to a point of efficiency seldom equaled in the tire business, Hood will maintain present prices and quality.

Any reduction under the above conditions would necessitate a reduction of quality or quantity of materials or of both. We will not pull down our standard — it has made Hood Tires famous the country over as the Quality Tires of America.

The quality of Hood Tires will be maintained.

Hood prices will continue to be — as in the past — THE standard by which real tire values can be safely judged, for to-day the price of a tire is the only true representation of comparative value — guarantees have come to mean nothing.

Ask us to show you records of Hood average mileage of last year. Let us prove to you WHY prices, divided by miles actually delivered, makes the Hood the most economical tire you can buy.

Can you afford to be without Hoods?

Oldsmobile
SETS THE PACE
22nd Year

The "THOROBRED"
7-passenger Touring Car

THE trend of automobile engineering points to the 8-cylinder car. And good buying judgment points to Oldsmobile.

We aimed higher than simply pioneering the "eight." We aimed to produce one of moderate price and low maintenance costs, —that had the flexibility, smoothness and abundance of power inherent in the 8-cylinder car.

—that cost as little to buy and operate as the majority of "sixes" and many "fours."

—that would be smartly distinctive, yet characteristically Oldsmobile.

Our aim is attained in the "THOROBRED"—the only popular priced "eight" in which mechanical excellence is combined with rare riding comfort and up-to-the-minute body lines. Oldsmobiles have been the history-makers of motordom; the "THOROBRED" is well worthy to perpetuate the name.

Descriptive literature will be sent upon request, or a demonstration gladly arranged.

SING SING FIRE
 Causes $100,000 Loss—None of Prisoners Missing Sing Sing, Nov. 22.—A fire which broke out early yesterday in the cart wagon factory of Sing Sing prison, raged for three hours before it was finally placed under control. The industrial buildings were completely destroyed and a large amount of material used in the prison industry was consumed. The fire was believed to be of incendiary origin.

The prisoners assisted in fighting the fire, which at one time threatened to destroy all the factory buildings in the prison yard. A preliminary count, taken after the flames were under control, showed that none of the inmates had escaped.

NO REST—NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, Alexandria people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.

Mrs. Chas. Cook, 410 Queen St., Alexandria, says: "After an attack of the 'flu' my kidneys were left in bad shape. My back pained me so I was in misery all the time. It seemed as though a dagger were being thrust into my kidneys. I could get no rest at night. Mornings I would be so tired and worn out I would feel like giving up. A friend saw what condition I was in and told me what a wonderful remedy Doan's Kidney Pills are. I sent to Oregerton's Drug Store for some. Doan's fixed me up all right in a short time. The pains all left me and before long I was entirely cured. It was Doan's Kidney Pills and nothing else that did it."

RIVER OF BEER

Zion City, Nov. 22.—Wilbur Glenn Voliva, apostle of Zionism, presided yesterday when 84,124 bottles of beer were destroyed. The beer had been confiscated from trucks hauling it from Milwaukee to Chicago. Crowds gathered for the occasion—a holiday for the city Alexander Dowle founded.

A scaffold had been built above the largest manhole in town and a river of beer flowed all day long on its way to Lake Michigan.

INGOMAR THEATRE

The management of the Ingomar Theatre announces that the feature drama on that theater's program for today will be "The Hellion," presenting Margarita Fisher, Geo. Periolat, and an exceptional cast in a powerful play of unique theme and spectacular atmosphere. It is the latest addition to the American Film Company's new list of "special features."

The story of "The Hellion," which comes from the pen of Daniel F. Whitcomb, deals with the regeneration of a girl entertainer in a brilliant café held there, virtually a prisoner, through mesmerizing influence exercised by the proprietor of the resort. By means of a clever ruse she succeeds in escaping from this distasteful environment. Her subsequent startling adventures in impersonating the daughter of social climbers, and her racking mental conflict when, in the character of her masquerade, she wins the love of the daughter's fiancé, built up a drama replete with tense situations and sensational touches that are new to the screen.

GRAND THEATRE

"Moving picture actors sure have a hard life," was the wail of William Desmond, Triangle star, while working on his latest picture, "The Sudden Gentleman," at the Grand Theater tonight. Cast as a callow youth from Old Erin, Desmond found it necessary to smoke a cigar, supposed to be the first the young Irishman had ever tasted. "I didn't have to do any acting," said Desmond. "The blamed thing made me as sick as a dog." No, girls, William never smokes. He can't even get along with a cigarette. Also Texas Gunmen in "A Dangerous Devil."

"I've Freed Myself Of The Old-Time Wash-Day Grind"
